It's funny, I still stare at my Missing FAQ books on the shelf and wonder whether I really wrote them. I did, honestly—I have the grey hairs to prove it!

But I've had a lot of help along the way, for which I'm very grateful.

I'd never have started this project if Lightroom users on various forums hadn't given me so much encouragement, so I have to start by thanking the members of Digital Wedding Forum and Lightroom Forums for constantly challenging me with questions, problems to solve, and giving me the idea for this book.

I couldn't go without thanking the Lightroom engineering and QE teams who created our favorite program, especially Tom Hogarty, Mark Hamburg, Troy & Melissa Gaul, Dan Tull, Eric Chan, Eric Scouten, Julie Knoch and Becky Sowada who have willingly answered my endless questions.

Thanks are also due to the team of Lightroom Gurus, who are always happy to discuss, debate and share their experience, especially Jeff Schewe, Andrew Rodney, Peter Krogh, Ian Lyons, Jeffrey Friedl, Sean McCormack, John Beardsworth, Mark Sirota, Lee Jay Fingersh, Brad Snyder, Don Ricklin, Gene McCullagh, Gilles Theophile, John Hollenberg and the rest of the crew!

Of course, then there are those who have helped put this book together. Many thanks go to Paul McFarlane, who did a great job of proof-reading and untangling my scribbles, cheered me up when I was shredding drafts that weren't quite working, and most importantly provided the HobNobs™ biscuits that fueled this project! Also Petra Hall, who stepped in to assist with the design at short notice, Erik Bernskiold who designed the cover, and Denis Pagé who has the most incredible eye for detail.

And finally I have to thank you, the Reader. This book has been completely rewritten since the Lightroom 3 beta 2 release, based entirely on the suggestions and questions that you've sent in. The lovely emails I've received make all the late nights and early mornings worthwhile—so thank you.
